Wetland wonder with stunning views
 Esperance's Woody Lake Nature Reserve is an official Ramsar Treaty Wetland, the only global environmental treaty that deals with a particular ecosystem. This protection has preserved a wetland teeming with precious bird life and Tranquil Retreat sits on the fringe of this extraordinary place.
 Hosts Brendan and Fran Freeman have created a home of notable design, embraced by a garden that contrasts their collection of unusual and exotic plants against a backdrop of nature's creation. The bird life knows no boundaries and guests will marvel at the variety of species that visit daily.
 The design of Tranquil Retreat is superb and features a circular hub for lounge and dining. Purposely designed as boutique retreat, the dedicated guest wing radiates off the hub and offers three gorgeously queen rooms. Each is decorated elegantly to please the most discerning guests.

 Guests enjoy afternoon tea and a sensational breakfast in the home's marvellous lounge/dining with its engaging views over the constantly evolving gardens. However, it is when you ascend to the top-floor guest lounge with its 360-degree views and viewing balcony that the true grandeur of this retreat is revealed, affording incredible views over the wetlands and the Bay of Isles.
 It is only minutes to Esperance, beaches and sights such as the incredible Stonehenge and for private pilots, the Myarup Fly-in Estate is nearby.
